

Richard B. Eubank Weds Miss Evans

GLOUCESTER, July 19.—(Special) —Miss Virginia Waller Evans, daughter of Mrs. McDonald Evans of Laneview, Essex county, and Richard Booth Eubank of Dunnsville and Amherst, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Booth Eubank of Point Breeze were married at 11 this morning in Glebe Landing Baptist church, Middlesex county. The Rev. L. W. Kersey performed the ceremony. Evergreens, white flowers and cathedral candles were the decorations.

James McD. Evans of Richmond entered with his sister and gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown was of white marquisette and lace over satin, on princess lines, with a long circular train. She wore a fingertip veil that fell from a halo of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bride's only jewelry was a diamond pin given her by her aunt on her wedding day.

Mrs. William H. Bartgis of Frederick, Md., sister of the bride and matron of honor, wore rose net fashioned with a tight bodice, full skirt, and puffed sleeves, a large white hat with ribbons matching her dress, and carried an arm bouquet of mixed garden flowers.

Miss Virginia Eubank of Williamsburg, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and wore chartreus green net fashioned like the matron of honor's.

Francis L. Eubank of Williamsburg was the best man. The ushers were Thomas M. Evans of Lottsburg, Mr. Bartgis, Robert Eubank and Benjamin M. Tyler of Roanoke.

Guests included the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. T. Nash Broaddus, Nash Broaddus, and Representative and Mrs. Dave E. Satterfield Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Evans, Mrs. R. S. Garnett, Miss Ruth Henderson and Miss Julia Ware of Richmond; Mrs. Thornell Muller of Columbia, S. C.; Miss Elle McKann, Harold Burton, Mr. and Mrs. William Holt, Dillon Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Evans, of Baltimore.

On their return from a trip through the mountains of North Carolina Mr. and Mrs. Eubank will be at home in Amherst.
