

“Sir John Harvey to Thomas Davis, 300 acs. in the Upper Co. of New Norfolk, May 22, 1637, page 424. Upon the S. side of the eastern branch of Eliz. Riv. opposite Thomas Sawyer, 5 or 6 mi. up the river Easterly to the head thereof. Due for the trans. of: Joane Jobb, Ann Griffin, Geo. Tabott, Susanna Bony, Robert Pearse, Wm. Pett.”

One Peter Hays received a grant of 350 acres August 21, 1637 upon Pagan Creek adjoining the land of Thomas Davis.

Thomas Davis received another grant of land in Isle of Wight County, as follows (Nugent's Abstracts, p. 111):

“Thomas Davis, 100 acs. Isle of Wight Co., November 23, 1637, page 502. Called Oyster banke Neck, adj. Thomas Jorden. Trans. of 2 pers. Names not given.”

In 1638 John Moon received a grant of 400 acres on the South Side of Warwicksqueicke River North upon Thomas Davis' land, and in 1638 Richard Bennett received a grant of 600 acres upon the bay behind Ambrose Meders Point and upon Thomas Davis' land.

Thomas Davis had land in Upper Norfolk County (later Nansemond) which has been in the possession of Thomas Dew and was by him assigned to Thomas Davis, for John Gary received a grant of 250 acres in that county in 1639 between the land “late in the possession of Thomas Dew and by him assigned to Thomas Davis” and the land of other persons.

Thomas Davis deeded fifty acres to Ambrose Meader in Isle of Wight County, July 18, 1636 (Va. Mag. 5, p. 403). He also deeded to John Moon 200 acres of the 300 granted March 6, 1643 (Va. Mag. 6, pp. 33, 113, 344). John Moon received a grant of 1,250 acres on Pagan Creek in Isle of Wight near the land of Thomas Davis in 1642.
